

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF TENNESSEE
WESTERN DIVISION

MICHAEL K. MATTOX, SR.,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 2:21-cv-02016-MSN-tmp

WESTERN MENTAL HEALTH
INSTITUTE,

Defendant.

ORDER ADOPTING THE REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

This cause comes before the Court on the Chief Magistrate Judge's Report and Recommendation, (ECF No. 7), issued on January 19, 2021. The Report recommends that Plaintiff's Pro Se Motion for Leave to Proceed In Forma Pauperis, (ECF No. 6), be denied. (ECF No. 7 at PageID 11.) Plaintiff filed timely objections to the Report and Recommendation on January 26, 2021. (ECF No. 8.) The Court ADOPTS the Report and Recommendation and OVERRULES Plaintiff's objections.

Background

On January 6, 2021, Plaintiff filed this pro se matter against Western Mental Health Institute alleging that Defendant violated the 1st, 4th, 5th, 8th, 13th, and 14th amendments. (ECF No. 1 at PageID 1.) That same day, Plaintiff also filed a Motion for Leave to Proceed In Forma Pauperis, (ECF No. 6), as well as a Motion for Discovery. (ECF No. 2.)

In a prior matter, this Court identified Plaintiff as a "frequent filer of patently meritless lawsuits." See Mattox v. All Judges Under United States of America, 2:19-cv-02542-MSN-dkv, ECF No. 6, at 1–2 (W.D. Tenn. Oct. 11, 2019). As a consequence, this Court placed pre-filing restrictions on Plaintiff. Id. Plaintiff must pay the full civil filing fee before commencing suit in this district. Id.

Relying on the Court’s prior order, the Chief Magistrate Judge issued his Report recommending that Plaintiff’s Motion for Leave to Proceed In Forma Pauperis be denied and that Plaintiff be required to pay the full civil filing fee before proceeding in this matter. (ECF No. 7 at PageID 12–13.) Plaintiff timely filed his objections on January 26, 2021. (ECF No. 8.) Plaintiff asserts that he has a meritorious case that should be allowed to proceed to trial. (Id. at PageID 14.) He warrants that he would be able to pay the requisite fees once he is victorious. (Id.)

Standard of Review

Congress enacted 28 U.S.C. § 636 to relieve the burden on the federal judiciary by permitting the assignment of district court duties to magistrate judges. See United States v. Curtis, 237 F.3d 598, 602 (6th Cir. 2001) (citing Gomez v. United States, 490 U.S. 858, 869–70 (1989)); see also Baker v. Peterson, 67 Fed. Appx. 308, 310 (6th Cir. 2003). For dispositive matters, “[t]he district judge must determine de novo any part of the magistrate judge’s disposition that has been properly objected to.” See Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(b)(3); 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). After reviewing the evidence, the court is free to accept, reject, or modify the magistrate judge’s proposed findings or recommendations. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1). The district court is not required to review—under a de novo or any other standard—those aspects of the report and recommendation to which no objection is made. See Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140, 150 (1985). The district court should adopt the magistrate judge’s findings and rulings to which no specific objection is filed. See id. at 151.

Objections to any part of a Magistrate Judge’s disposition “must be clear enough to enable the district court to discern those issues that are dispositive and contentious.” Miller v. Currie, 50

F.3d 373, 380 (6th Cir. 1995); see also Arn, 474 U.S. at 147 (stating that the purpose of the rule is to “focus attention on those issues . . . that are at the heart of the parties’ dispute.”). Each objection to the Magistrate Judge’s recommendation should include how the analysis is wrong, why it was wrong and how de novo review will obtain a different result on that particular issue. Howard v. Sec’y of Health & Human Servs., 932 F.2d 505, 509 (6th Cir. 1991).

A general objection, or one that merely restates the arguments previously presented and addressed by the magistrate judge, does not sufficiently identify alleged errors in the report and recommendation. Id. When an objection reiterates the arguments presented to the magistrate judge, the report and recommendation should be reviewed for clear error. Verdone v. Comm’r of Soc. Sec., No. 16-CV-14178, 2018 WL 1516918, at *2 (E.D. Mich. Mar. 28, 2018) (citing Ramirez v. United States, 898 F. Supp. 2d 659, 663 (S.D.N.Y. 2012)); Equal Employment Opportunity Comm’n v. Dolgencorp, LLC, 277 F. Supp. 3d 932, 965 (E.D. Tenn. 2017).

Analysis

Plaintiff objects to the Report’s recommendation on the ground that he should be able to proceed in forma pauperis because he has a meritorious case. (ECF No. 8.) This objection misses the point.

As the Report notes, Plaintiff is a frequent filer of meritless lawsuits and that pre-filing restrictions have been placed on him.¹ (ECF No. 7 at PageID 12.) Plaintiff’s objection does not contest the validity of this pre-filing restriction; he instead asks that it be waived because he believes he has a meritorious case. (ECF No. 8 at PageID 14.) The Court takes no position on the merits of Plaintiff's case at this juncture. The Court can make that determination after Plaintiff has paid the full civil filing fee in this matter.

1. Since January 1, 2019, Plaintiff has commenced at least eleven (11) civil suits in this district. See Mattox v. All Judges Under United States of America, 2:19-cv-02542-MSN-dkv, ECF No. 5, at 8 n. 5 (W.D. Tenn. Sept. 23, 2019) (listing cases).

Accordingly, the Court ADOPTS the Chief Magistrate Judge's Report and Recommendation and OVERRULES Plaintiff's objection. Plaintiff shall pay the full civil filing fee of $402 within fourteen (14) days of entry of this Order. Failure to do so will result in this matter being dismissed without further notice.

IT IS SO ORDERED, this 22nd day of March, 2021.
